

RECREATION RULES OF BROAD RIDGE BAPTIST CHURCH

1. The principles of the Baptist doctrine will govern the overall functions of the Broad Ridge Baptist Church recreational programs. Every participant shall live regardless of time and place as a true Christian.
2. All team members will be active participants in Church Services at Broad Ridge Church.
3. All teams must be approved annually by the church.
4. Broad Ridge Baptist Church will not assume any liabilities arising out of sickness, injury, death or loss of personal properties while participating in any church sponsored programs. This also includes private transportation to and from any church sponsored activity.
5. Anyone participating in any church sponsored recreational program will be required to sign a prepared statement relieving the Broad Ridge Baptist Church of any financial responsibilities as described above.
6. Prospective athletes who are members of any other church, which do not participate, in a specific recreational program may become an active participant in any Broad Ridge Baptist Church program, upon written verification from his/her pastor.
